Booktalkin’ Blue Spruce

Title ___________________________________________

by ____________________________________________ Author................................................................

is about _______________________________________

Character(s)......................................................

who __________________________________________

Problem(s) they deal with Something to grab the readers’ attention:

- Examples
  - To find out what happens after __, read this book!
  - Read a short, tantalizing section.
  - Note if it is a sequel or part of a series, or if there is a movie or TV show connected to it.
  - Compare to a similar book, movie, TV show, or video game.
  - Hint at audience it might appeal to: middle schooler, action fans, etc.
    - Ex: If you like realistic love stories, you’ll love this book!

Ex: If you like realistic love stories, you’ll love this book!